(the "Plan"), and PENSCO agree to serve as custodian of the Plan's assets, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

2. HOLDING OF ASSETS

PENSCO shall hold, as custodian, all deposits, funds and assets of the Plan that the Trustee or Employer designates and transfers to PENSCO for such purpose, for and on behalf of the Plan. Such deposits, funds and assets are referred to hereinafter as the "Fund." The Trustee, on behalf of the trust established by the Plan, shall remain the legal owner of all Fund assets. Fund assets shall be held in the name of PENSCO Trust Company, LLC, Custodian, FBO the Plan or in one of the nominee names registered to PENSCO, unless agreed to otherwise by PENSCO and the Employer or Trustee.

3. INTERESTED PARTY (INFORMATION ONLY DESIGNATION)

The Employer or Trustee may authorize an additional person (other than the Account Owner, Financial Representative or Designated Representative) to receive Account information and electronic statements only. PENSCO will not accept purchase or sale instructions from an Interested Party.

Individuals who are designated as an Interested Party by the Account Owner may not be a sponsor of or otherwise affiliated with an investment in the Account. It is the responsibility of the Employer or Trustee to review the assets for the Account to ensure compliance with this provision and to take steps to remove an Interested Party from the Account in the event of non-compliance.

4. FINANCIAL REPRESENTATIVE INFORMATION & AUTHORIZATION

The Employer or Trustee may choose to designate a Financial Representative (FR), who the Employer or Trustee authorizes to execute transactions for the Custodial account according to the "Terms and Conditions of Appointment of Financial Representative," listed in section 5.

The FR must separately consent to his or her designation as the Employer's or Trustee's agent, and acknowledge that he or she will be acting solely as the Employer's or Trustee's agent and not as the agent of PENSCO.

5. TERMS & CONDITIONS OF APPOINTMENT OF FINANCIAL REPRESENTATIVE

By execution of the Application, the named FR (if any) has been designated subject to the following terms and conditions:

(a) The Employer or Trustee, and not PENSCO and its related entities, is responsible for the actions of the FR. The FR is the authorized agent of the Employer or Trustee and is not an employee or agent of PENSCO.

(b) The Employer or the Trustee acknowledges that PENSCO does not recommend the appointment or retention of any specific FR, does not make any representations regarding his/ her compliance with securities laws or registration requirements, and is not affiliated with the FR in any way.

(c) The FR (which includes the FR's employees and staff) is authorized to provide transaction instructions to PENSCO for the Account and to direct PENSCO to perform transactions for the Account on behalf of the Employer or Trustee. Such direction may include, but is not limited to, making or receiving payment pursuant to the FR's investment directions or upon receipt of transaction confirmations.

(d) The FR may remove himself or herself upon written notice to PENSCO.

(e) PENSCO shall be fully protected in relying on and acting on any notice, instruction, direction or approval received from the FR. PENSCO shall be under no duty to make any investigation or inquiry with respect to any notice, instruction, direction or approval received from the FR, or to investigate or take any action with respect to the FR.

(f) The Employer or the Trustee may remove his or her FR by providing written notice to PENSCO on a form acceptable to PENSCO; however, the removal of a FR shall not have the effect of canceling any notice, instruction, direction or approval from that FR received by PENSCO before PENSCO receives written notice of the removal of the FR.

(g) The Employer or the Trustee may designate a new FR by providing written notice to PENSCO on a form provided by PENSCO; however, PENSCO shall not rely on or act on any notice, instruction, direction or approval from the new FR received by PENSCO before PENSCO receives the written notice of the new designation of the FR.

(h) PENSCO shall reflect the name and business address of the Employer's or Trustee's designated FR on each quarterly Account statement and shall assume that the FR information reflected on the Account statement is accurate unless the Employee or the Trustee and/or the FR notifies PENSCO in writing of the discrepancy.

If the FR is associated with a broker-dealer firm or financial exchange, PENSCO may make information about Account activity available to the broker-dealer or exchange to assist them with their supervisory responsibilities required under applicable rules and regulations.

firm, and any companies to which the aforementioned are associated, may not sponsor or otherwise be affiliated with the investments purchased within the Account. It is the responsibility of the Employer or the Trustee and the FR to perform a review of the investments for the Account to ensure compliance with this provision and to take necessary steps to remove the FR from the Account in the event of non-compliance.

(j) It is the Employer's or the Trustee's responsibility to review the actions of the FR to ensure compliance with all laws and regulations and to remove the FR if he or she does not comply with the laws, rules and regulations that apply to the Account or to the terms of the Account.

(k) If permitted by the Employer or Trustee, a Financial Representative may be designated, or identified by, a Plan participant with respect to the Participant's interest in the Fund. In that event, the terms, provisions, and restrictions of this Agreement applicable to the Employer with respects to the Financial Representative shall be applicable to the participant to the extent of the participant's interest in the Fund.

6. DESIGNATED REPRESENTATIVE

(a) The Employer or Trustee, by providing such information in any form or manner that is otherwise acceptable to PENSCO, may designate a representative ("Designated Representative") through whom PENSCO shall be authorized to accept investment instructions for the Custodial Account. The Employer or Trustee (and not PENSCO) shall be responsible for investigating, selecting, instructing and monitoring the Designated Representative and to perform whatever investigation or due diligence as may be appropriate before selecting, designating or retaining the Designated Representative. The Designated Representative shall be the authorized agent of the Employer or Trustee and shall not be treated for any purpose as, an employee, agent or affiliate of PENSCO, or as controlled, approved, recommended or endorsed by PENSCO. PENSCO shall have no duty to, and shall not, supervise or monitor the Designated Representative or any investment transactions the Designated Representative instructs PENSCO to make. PENSCO may construe any and all investments and transactions requested or directed by the Designated Representative, whether written or oral, as having been duly authorized by the Employer or Trustee. If the Employer or Trustee has appointed a Designated Representative for the Custodial Account, PENSCO is authorized to notify the Designated Representative of any investment instruction(s) received from the Employer or Trustee; unless the Employer or Trustee specifically notifies PENSCO NOT to do so in writing, or PENSCO is prohibited from doing so by law. PENSCO will not be responsible for any consequences of such notification. The Employer or Trustee may remove a Designated Representative by written notice to PENSCO, provided, however, that removal of a Designated Representative shall not have the effect of canceling any notice, instruction, direction or approval received by PENSCO from the removed Designated Representative before PENSCO has received written notice of removal of the Designated Representative and has had a reasonable opportunity to implement such cancellation.

(b) If the Employer or Trustee designates a Designated Representative who is a registered investment advisor

(RIA), these additional provisions shall apply:

PENSCO may accept instructions from the Designated Representative who is a RIA for investment and other transactions concerning the Custodial Account as having been duly authorized by the Employer or Trustee, whether pursuant to any power of attorney, investment management agreement or similar document or instrument pursuant to which the Employer or Trustee has given authority to the RIA with respect to assets such as the Custodial Account. PENSCO may rely on and implement such instructions from a Designated Representative, who is a RIA without obtaining, reviewing or requiring such Designated Representative to provide a copy of any power of attorney, investment management agreement or similar document signed by the Employer or Trustee, and without determining the existence or scope of any restrictions on the authority of the Designated Representative. PENSCO may rely on any communication from any employee of the Designated Representative who is a RIA as having been delivered on behalf of the Designated Representative and shall have no obligation or duty to investigate or determine whether that employee was authorized to deliver those instructions. The Employer or Trustee agrees that he or she (and not PENSCO) is responsible for monitoring the instructions and authorizations issued by the Designated Representative. The Employer or Trustee agrees that the provisions of this subparagraph (b) and any other provisions in this Custodial Agreement relating to a Designated Representative who is a RIA shall apply as well to any other person that the Employer or Trustee may designate as a Designated Representative if such person is not a RIA but is a regulated person or entity, such as a bank, savings and loan, broker-dealer or other financial institution, with appropriate modifications to the language to reflect the substitution of the type of regulated entity (e.g., "bank") for "RIA" in the relevant provision.

(c) If the Employer or Trustee appoints a Designated Representative or Financial Representative who is a RIA, the Employer or Trustee agrees that PENSCO may communicate with the Designated Representative as the principal point of contact with respect to all matters concerning the Custodial Account and that PENSCO shall have no obligation to copy the Employer or Trustee on its communications with the Designated Representative. The Employer or Trustee also authorizes PENSCO to provide copies of all correspondence, reports and statements with respect to the Custodial Account and any related information about the Custodial Account to a Designated Representative who is a RIA.

(d) If permitted by the Employer or Trustee, a Designated Representative or Financial Representative may be designated by a Plan participant with respect to the Participant's interest in the Fund. In that event, the terms, provisions and restrictions of this Agreement applicable to the Employer with respect to the Designated Representative shall be applicable to the participant to the extent of the participant's interest in the Fund.

7. RESPONSIBILITIES FOR INVESTMENT DECISIONS & AUTHORIZATION

(a) The Employer, Trustee, the Designated Representative, Financial Representative or a Plan participant (with respect to such participant's Plan accounts) may direct PENSCO to invest Fund assets in any lawful investment acceptable to PENSCO, in a format prescribed by PENSCO. Cash balances in the Fund for which no investment instructions have been received shall be placed in an interest-bearing account, subject to the provisions of Paragraph 7(g). PENSICO AND ITS RELATED ENTITIES SHALL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE OR LIABLE FOR TAXES, LOSSES OR OTHER CONSEQUENCES RESULTING FROM INVESTMENTS MADE OR TRANSACTIONS ENTERED INTO AT THE DIRECTION OF THE EMPLOYER, TRUSTEE, THE DESIGNATED REPRESENTATIVE OR PLAN PARTICIPANT(S).

(b) The Employer, Trustee, the Designated Representative, Financial Representative and Plan participant shall be solely responsible for determining the suitability, nature, prudence, value, viability, risk, safety, legality, tax consequences and merit of, and to perform any "due diligence" or other investigation with respect to, any particular investment, strategy or transaction involving the Fund. PENSICO and its related entities shall have no responsibility for, and shall not undertake, any such determination, performance or investigation. PENSICO and its related entities shall render no tax, legal investment or other advice (and no statement, communication or other act by PENSICO or its related entities or any of their employees or agents shall be deemed to constitute or may be relied upon as any such advice) with respect to any investment or transaction involving the Fund. PENSICO shall be authorized, and shall have the responsibility, only to acquire, hold and dispose of such investments as directed by the Employer, Trustee, the Designated Representative and/or the Plan participant(s) or as expressly provided in this Agreement.

(c) The Employer, Trustee, the Designated Representative, Financial Representative and Plan participant shall be solely responsible for monitoring Fund investments. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Employer, Trustee, the Designated Representative, Financial Representative and Plan participant agree to hold PENSICO and its related entities and their employees and agents harmless from all losses, liabilities and expenses incurred, including attorney's fees, arising out of their administration of the Fund or in connection with any actions taken or failures to act in reliance upon the Employer's, Trustee's, the Designated Representative's, Financial Representative's or a Plan participant's instructions.

(e) The Employer, Trustee, the Designated Representative, Financial Representative and Plan participant acknowledge that certain investments or types of investments or transactions may pose administrative or other burdens to PENSICO and/or its related entities, and therefore PENSICO reserves the right not to process or accept such investments or transactions. The decision not to act on investment directions that PENSICO deems unacceptable for administrative or other reasons shall in no way be construed as a determination by PENSICO or its related entities concerning the suitability, nature, prudence, value, viability, risk, safety, legality, tax consequences or merit of the investment or transaction. The Employer and Trustee further acknowledge that (1) any administrative review performed by PENSICO and/or its related entities is solely for their benefit and is not a "due diligence" or other review with regard to the investment or transaction and (2) the conducting or results of such a review shall not constitute, may not be relied upon as, or in any way obligate PENSICO or its related entities or their employees or agents to provide an opinion, recommendation or prediction or advice regarding the suitability, nature, prudence, value, viability, risk, safety, legality, tax consequences, merit or any other aspect of the investment or transaction.

(f) The Employer, Trustee, the Designated Representative, Financial Representative and Plan participant acknowledge that certain types of investments or transactions directly or indirectly involving or relating to the Fund or its assets or income may constitute prohibited transactions, within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code ("Code") section 4975, resulting in tax consequences to certain persons, (2) generate "unrelated business taxable income," as defined in the Code, for the Fund, (3) constitute "listed transactions" or "reportable transactions," as defined in the Code and regulations or other pronouncements issued by the United States Treasury or Internal Revenue Service, resulting in reporting requirements, and adverse consequences for failing to comply with any applicable reporting or other requirements, for the Plan, the Plan's trust and/or other persons and/or (4) otherwise result in adverse tax consequences to the Plan and/or the Plan's trust or its participants or beneficiaries. IT IS THE EMPLOYER'S, TRUSTEE'S, DESIGNATED REPRESENTATIVE'S, FINANCIAL REPRESENTATIVE'S AND PLAN PARTICIPANT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO DETERMINE, AND TO CONSULT SUCH PERSON'S OWN ADVISOR AS SUCH PERSON DEEMS NECESSARY OR ADVISABLE IN ORDER TO DETERMINE, WHETHER ANY INVESTMENT OR TRANSACTION INVOLVING THE FUND OR ITS ASSETS OR INCOME DOES OR MAY CONSTITUTE A PROHIBITED TRANSACTION, GENERATE UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME, CONSTITUTE A LISTED OR REPORTABLE TRANSACTION, OR RESULT IN ANY OTHER TAX OR ADVERSE CONSEQUENCE, AND THE CONSEQUENCES, REQUIREMENTS AND OBLIGATIONS RESULTING THEREFROM. PENSICO AND ITS RELATED AND THEIR EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS SHALL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR MAKING ANY SUCH DETERMINATION, OR FOR NOT

ADVISING THE EMPLOYER, TRUSTEE, DESIGNATED REPRESENTATIVE, FINANCIAL REPRESENTATIVE, AND PLAN PARTICIPANT TO MAKE ANY SUCH DETERMINATION. PENSCO AND ITS RELATED ENTITIES SHALL NOT BE HELD LIABLE FOR LOSSES, TAXES, PENALTIES OR OTHER CONSEQUENCES RESULTING FROM ANY FUND INVESTMENT OR TRANSACTION THAT CONSTITUTES A PROHIBITED TRANSACTION GENERATES UNRELATED BUSINESS INCOME TAXABLE INCOME, IS A LISTED TRANSACTION OR REPORTABLE TRANSACTION, OR OTHERWISE RESULTS IN ANY ADVERSE CONSEQUENCE TO ANY PERSON.

(g) The Employer, Trustee, the Designated Representative, Financial Representative or a Plan participant (with respect to such participant's Plan accounts) shall direct the Custodian with regard to the investment of any cash in the Account. In the absence of specific direction from the Employer, Trustee Designated Representative, Financial Representative or Plan Participant to invest cash in the Account, the Custodian will be deemed to have been directed by the Employer, Trustee, the Designated Representative, Financial Representative or Plan participant to deposit all uninvested cash with an FDIC-insured depository institution (which may include banks affiliated or that may be affiliated with PENSCO, such as Opus Bank), and is authorized in the future to withdraw the full balance of such uninvested cash and deposit it with another FDIC-insured depository institution selected by the Custodian (which may include banks affiliated or that may be affiliated with PENSCO, such as Opus Bank). 9. MINIMUM ACCOUNT VALUE REQUIREMENT

Accounts requesting a distribution or transfer must retain the minimum cash in the account referred to in the applicable fee schedule or in an asset PENSCO deems liquid in addition to the total amount due for invoiced fees. 10. THE EMPLOYER'S AND TRUSTEE'S RESPONSIBILITIES TO ENSURE PROPER TAX TREATMENT, PAYMENT OF LIABILITIES & COMPLIANCE WITH REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

The Employer and Trustee shall be solely and fully responsible for ensuring proper payment of any taxes, tax penalties and other liabilities, and compliance with the Employer's and Trustee's reporting obligations, in connection with contributions to, disbursements from, or investments or transactions with respect to the Fund, and for the consequences of such payment (or nonpayment) or of any noncompliance with applicable reporting requirements. 11. PENSCO TRUST AGENTS

- (a) Any act of PENSCO or its related entities or any other such person with respect to the Custodial Account,

14. ACCOUNT STATEMENTS; VALUATION OF ASSETS

Each account statement issued reflects the reported value of the account assets, all transactions that have been processed by PENSCO and all fees (if any) that have been charged. PENSCO reports the value of account assets as accurately as possible using the resources available to it. The values listed on the PENSCO account statement may differ from values listed on related brokerage account or other asset sponsor statements.

Individual values for securities that have publicly-quoted prices are reported based solely on such quoted prices, which are obtained from a quotation service or other source generally available to the public. PENSCO does not guarantee the accuracy of prices obtained from quotation services or other sources, or the length of availability of such prices.

Values for alternative assets are generally reported at their original offering price to investors. PENSCO classifies alternative assets into two types: equity and debt. Assets that PENSCO has classified as alternative equities include, but are not limited to, non service priced private partnership or limited liability company interests, private common and preferred stock and private real estate investment trusts. Assets that PENSCO has classified as alternative debt include, but are not limited to, mortgages/ deeds of trust, corporate and private partnership notes and other private debt offerings. Information regarding whether an alternative asset has been classified as equity or debt is available upon request. On an annual basis (or more frequently if requested), PENSCO requests updated valuation information from such persons as asset sponsors, general partners or managing members of private partnership or limited liability company interests, officers of private corporations and sponsors of other assets it has classified as alternative equities. PENSCO will normally adjust the reported value of an alternative equity asset if the general partner, officer or sponsor provides PENSCO with an updated value. If it does not receive an updated value from the general partner, officer or sponsor, PENSCO may require that the Plan Administrator or Trustee obtain and provide to PENSCO an updated value from the asset sponsor, or provide an independent appraisal for their asset. If the Plan Administrator or Trustee fails to provide this information, PENSCO may require the Plan Administrator or Trustee to remove the asset from their account by transfer or distribution. If the Plan Administrator or Trustee does not remove the asset from the Account as directed, PENSCO may distribute the asset to the Plan at the last reported value or resign and distribute the entire Plan. PENSCO does not request updated valuation (or outstanding loan balance) information for assets it has classified as alternative debt. However, PENSCO will normally adjust the reported value (or outstanding loan balance) of an alternative debt asset if it receives updated valuation (or outstanding loan balance) information from the Servicing Agent or from the alternative debt asset sponsor.

For alternative debt assets that, according to PENSCO's records have passed their maturity date, PENSCO may require the asset sponsor, Servicing Agent, Plan Administrator or Trustee to provide information to show the current status of the asset. If PENSCO does not receive this information when requested, PENSCO may distribute the asset to the Plan at the last reported value or resign and distribute the entire Plan. PENSCO does not conduct appraisals of assets and does not seek to verify the prices or values provided to it. The reported value of any asset may differ materially from its actual value. PENSCO does not guarantee the accuracy of reported values or whether the Account Owner will be able to obtain the reported value in the event of a sale, redemption or surrender.

Values reported as N/A indicate that either:

- 1) PENSCO has become aware of an event that has occurred making the previous valuation doubtful, such as a bankruptcy filing or appointment of receiver,

- 2) PENSCO has received information from the asset sponsor, or an independent appraisal from a third party to indicate that the asset has no value, or

- 3) A security generally has a publicly-quoted price, but PENSCO has received a "nobid" indication from a third party quotation service. Valuation information or other information provided or reported by PENSCO should not be used as a basis for making, retaining or disposing of an asset. Please refer to reports (or other information) provided by brokers, general partners, corporate officers or other asset sponsors (or contact these sources directly) with regard to the current operation and status of any chosen asset(s). The frequency with which PENSCO updates prices depends upon the asset type and the frequency with which asset sponsors provide updated valuation information. This means that a price might be updated monthly, quarterly, semiannually, annually or on the specific date the updated valuation information was received. This may also mean that, while the number of shares or other information regarding an asset has been updated, the price may not have been updated.

Note: Mutual funds and other assets sometimes pay dividends or distribute income on or shortly before quarter-end. Such transactions generally will not be reflected on the Account Statement until the quarter in which PENSCO receives payment or confirmation from the asset sponsor verifying the transaction and share position. Please keep this in mind when reviewing the security positions and account value.

A total value for all your assets (by category) is listed in the "Account Summary" portion of your statement. Your Account Statement (and the reported values therein) should not be used as the basis for making, retaining or disposing of an asset.

Please review each Account statement carefully, and be sure the activity and balances on your PENSCO Account statement are accurate. The Plan Administrator or Trustee must report any discrepancies to PENSCO in writing within 90 days of the date of the Account statement. If we do not receive the Plan Administrator or Trustee's written objections within the stated period, PENSCO shall be relieved of all liability for the report, act or procedure reflected on the statement.

15. PROXIES

PENSCO shall not, except as directed by the Employer or Trustee or his or her Designated Representative, vote proxies.

16. RECORDED PHONE LINES

PENSCO and its related entities reserve the right to install automatic telephone recording equipment on certain telephone lines used by Custodial Account servicing personnel who handle investment functions and/or client inquiries. By signing the accompanying Custodial Agreement, the Employer or Trustee grants PENSCO and its related entities consent to record and play back such calls.

17. BILLING & FEE COLLECTION

(a) In consideration for services under this Custodial Agreement, PENSCO shall be paid the fees specified on the applicable Fee Schedule, the provisions of which are incorporated into this Agreement. Such fees may include, but are not limited to, account establishment, account maintenance, account termination and other account administrative fees as identified in the applicable Fee Schedule, as well as processing fees and Custodial Cash service fees. Account establishment fees shall be paid by the Employer or the Trustee at the time a completed and executed Custodial Account Application is submitted to PENSICO. Account administration, account termination, custodial processing services and other account administrative fees ("custodial fees") shall be paid either by deducting cash from the custodial account or by charging the debit/credit card on file, or by any other acceptable payment method that may be offered by PENSICO in the future. The Custodial Cash fee paid to PENSICO shall be deducted from interest earned on cash balances prior to the crediting of such interest to the Custodial account at the end of each month. The Custodial Cash fee is charged as a percentage, as determined in the discretion of PENSICO from time to time (the "percentage"), but not to exceed a maximum per annum rate of 3.50% of the average daily balance of custodial account cash as described in the Minimum Account Value Requirement section above. The actual amount of the Custodial Cash fee paid to PENSICO will vary depending on the level of the cash balance held by the Employer or the Trustee in the custodial account on a daily basis and the percentage charged by PENSICO on the cash balance from time to time. The Custodial Cash fee may reduce the amount of net interest so paid to the Employer or the Trustee on a monthly basis to zero or a negligible amount. The Custodial Cash fee will not be charged against the principal balance of cash held by the Employer or by the Trustee in the custodial account. The account is only eligible to earn interest if it is open as of the interest crediting date, and any interest that may accrue during a month that an account is closed prior to the interest crediting date will be paid to PENSICO as an additional fee.

PENSICO reserves the right to effect changes to its Fee Schedule, including an increase in the maximum percentage that may be charged for Custodial Cash fees, upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Employer or the Trustee, with the exception of the Custodial Cash fee percentage which will vary from time to time based on the cash balance held by the Employer or the Trustee in the custodial account and for which the percentage charged by PENSICO may be changed at any time without notice if it does not exceed the maximum percentage. A reduction in the maximum percentage for the Custodial Cash fee may also be made by PENSICO at any time without notice.

Fees will continue to accrue and be payable even if the Account contains no assets from which PENSICO can collect amounts owed by the Employer or the Trustee.

(b) PENSICO may charge the Employer or the Trustee, and/or the custodial account, and shall be reimbursed by the Employer or the Trustee or the custodial account, for any reasonable expense incurred by PENSICO in connection with any account services or activities that PENSICO determines are necessary or advisable, or which are expressly directed by the Employer or the Trustee, and which are not included in the services provided by PENSICO for its normal fees. PENSICO will only pay expenses relating to the external administration of a specific investment held in the custodial account, such as property tax or association fees, from cash available in the custodial account and will not advance such expenses on behalf of the Employer or the Trustee if cash is unavailable.

Examples of the foregoing include, but are not limited to, attorney's fees and other legal costs and expenses including, without limitation, filing and other court fees; arbitration; mediation, investigation; expert witness; and court reporter fees and similar expenses

(1) In defense of, or otherwise on behalf of, the custodial account or the Employer's or the Trustee's interest therein in any arbitration, litigation, investigation or request by a governmental or regulatory agency, involving or relating to the custodial account or any of its assets or transactions; or

(2) In defense of PENSICO, if PENSICO is named together with the Employee or the Trustee or the custodial account in any proceeding involving the Employer or the Trustee or the custodial account. PENSICO may establish a reasonable reserve from the assets of the custodial account with which to pay its compensation or expenses for administration.

(c) Within thirty (30) days of establishment of a custodial account, the Employer or the Trustee shall furnish PENSICO with the card holder name, card number and expiration date ("Information") of a valid credit card or bank/debit card ("debit credit card"). See PENSICO's website (pensico.com) for a list of acceptable card account issuers. The card holder shall authorize PENSICO to charge the card account on file for custodial fees and expenses in accordance with this Billing and Fee Collection section. The Employer or the Trustee must maintain valid debit/credit card information on file at all times. If such debit/credit card information expires or otherwise ceases to be valid, the Employer or the Trustee shall immediately provide PENSICO with valid replacement debit/credit card information, and authorize PENSICO to charge such replacement debit/credit card for custodial fees and expenses in accordance with the Billing and Fee Collection section.

(d) The Employer or the Trustee may elect to pay the custodial fees using available cash in their custodial account, or by charging the debit/credit card information on file (the "Fee Payment Preference"). Fees will first be satisfied by cash held as prepayment of fees, if any. If there is no cash held as prepaid fees, PENSICO will attempt to satisfy fees using the method selected as the Fee Payment Preference. If PENSICO is not able to satisfy the payment of fees using the selected Fee Payment Preference, satisfaction of custodial fees will be attempted using any other available means, including by using available cash in the custodial account.

Fees associated with the termination of an account will first be satisfied by cash held as prepayment of fees, if any. If there is no cash held as prepaid fees or there continues to be a fee balance associated with the termination of the account, PENSICO will attempt to satisfy the fees using the available cash in the custodial account. If PENSICO is still not able to satisfy the fee balance associated with the termination of the account, satisfaction of the fee balance will be attempted using any other available means, including, but not limited to, charging the debit/credit card information on file or sending an invoice request to the client. Please note that if PENSICO has to use other available means to satisfy the fee balance, this may delay the account termination request and may result in adverse tax consequences.

(e) In the event that an Employer or a Trustee has selected a Fee Payment Preference of charging the debit/credit card on file, and PENSICO's attempt to charge the debit/credit card fails for any reason, including but not limited to, card expiration or temporary "holds" placed on the card by the card issuer, and PENSICO is able to satisfy the outstanding fees using available cash in the custodial account pursuant to section (d) above, PENSICO may, at its sole discretion, decline any request to make subsequent attempts to charge the credit/debit card on file or other card as provided by the Employer or the Trustee for such fees and to reimburse the custodial account in the amount of such fees.

For any Employer or Trustee request to reimburse the custodial account for fees collected from available cash in the situation described above (where the Fee Payment Preference was set to charge the debit/credit card on file, but where such attempt fails, and available cash in the custodial account was used to satisfy such fees) in favor of making payment with unqualified funds (funds from outside of the custodial account), PENSICO may, at its sole discretion, accept a check to pay the fees under these circumstances, and PENSICO will not make a subsequent attempt to charge the credit/debit card on file or to charge any other credit/debit card provided by the Employer or the Trustee for such fees.

(f) If any custodial fees remain outstanding for more than 45 days, and all available payment methods have been attempted to satisfy such fees, PENSICO may attempt to satisfy any such unpaid fees by liquidating investments in the custodial account, in order of the most liquid to least liquid as PENSICO determines in its sole discretion, as necessary to satisfy the balance of the outstanding fees plus an amount equal to up to one year's estimated custodial fees, as well as any other costs associated with such liquidation, including but not limited to all expenses charged by asset sponsors, and the Liquidation Fee set forth on the Fee Schedule. The prior quarter's fees, plus applicable annual custodial fees, shall be used as the basis for the estimation of one year's custodial fees.

(g) If custodial fees remain outstanding after 45 days, after reasonable attempts have been made to satisfy such fees with other available means, PENSICO may notify the Employer or the Trustee in writing of its intent to resign as Custodian and distribute the assets to the Employer or the Trustee if fees are not satisfied within 30 days from the date of such notification. PENSICO may employ a collection agency to recover all unpaid fees and expenses.

(h) In the event of an overdraft in the custodial account, PENSICO shall provide the Employer or the Trustee with written notice to immediately either pay PENSICO or deposit funds in the custodial account to remedy such overdraft. Upon failure of the Employer or the Trustee to pay outstanding fees and expenses, or to remedy an overdraft in the custodial account within the time specified, following a 30-day notice period, PENSICO may resign as Custodian and distribute the account assets to the Employer or the Trustee. PENSICO may employ a collection agency to recover all unpaid fees, expenses and overdrafts.

(i) The Employer or the Trustee hereby relieves PENSICO of any liability for claims for costs, taxes, penalties and extra fees resulting from the failure of the Employer or the Trustee to pay any assessed fees, in a timely manner and from any consequent actions taken by PENSICO. The Employer or the Trustee understands and agrees he or she is responsible for reporting any inaccuracy of all assessed account fees and must report any inaccuracies within 45 days of the Fee Statement date.

(j) For any charge made to a credit/debit card that the Employer or the Trustee wishes to dispute, the Employer or the Trustee shall direct the dispute to PENSICO. If after a review of the dispute, PENSICO agrees that the charge or portion thereof should be refunded; such refund will be processed in a timely manner.

Debit/credit card charges should not be disputed directly with the card issuer. Doing so may result in a chargeback to PENSICO which will in turn result in an immediate debit to the uninvested cash in the custodial account in an amount equal to the charged back amount. Should the uninvested cash in the custodial account be insufficient to cover the chargeback, the outstanding balance of the chargeback will be assessed to the custodial account and the Employer or the Trustee will be notified. Satisfaction of the assessed fee amount will be subject to the terms of this Billing and Fee Collection section.

(k) Accounts holding $ 200 or less in cash, and no other assets, will be closed, and the cash balance will be paid to PENSICO as an Account Termination Fee as set forth in the Fee Schedule.

(l) Certain fees set forth on the Fee Schedule may continue to apply after notification of the account closure. Examples of such fees may include, but are not limited to: research/special services fees (including trailing dividends and other payments to the custodial account post-closure), check/wire fees, requests for copies of records and other miscellaneous fees that are attributable to work performed by PENSICO related to the custodial account, but performed after the account has closed. Any fees that remain unpaid after the custodial account is closed will be subject to collections and payment according to the terms outlined in this Billing and Fee Collection section.

18. PLAN PARTICIPANTS

A participant is defined pursuant to the terms of the plan (i.e. Plan Document). It is the Employer's or Trustee's responsibility to determine the eligibility for the Employee to participate in the Plan. In no way shall the establishment of the Employee's account by PENSICO indicate that PENSICO is validating the Employee's eligibility to participate in the Plan.

19. RESIGNATION & REMOVAL BY PENSICO

(a) PENSICO may resign as custodian of the Custodial Account by giving 30 days written notice to the Employer or Trustee at the Employer's or Trustee's last known address, or may be removed as custodian by the Employer or Trustee giving PENSICO written notice and instructions regarding disposition of assets of the Custodial Account. Upon the Employer's or Trustee's receipt of PENSICO's written notice of resignation, the Employer or Trustee shall make arrangements to transfer the assets of the Custodial Account, as the case may be, maintained by another custodian or trustee. PENSICO shall have no responsibility for determining or advising the Employer or Trustee if the custodian or trustee designated by the Employer or Trustee is qualified to act as such. If the Employer or Trustee does not complete such a transfer within 30 days of PENSICO's written notice to the Employer or Trustee, PENSICO has the right to select a successor custodian or trustee at its discretion and complete the transfer or to distribute the assets of the Custodial Account to the Employer or Trustee. PENSCO shall not be liable for any action or failure of action by any successor custodian or trustee or for any tax consequences that may occur as a result of a distribution or transfer of the Custodial Account assets.

(b) If this Custodial Agreement is terminated by either the Employer or Trustee or PENSCO, PENSCO may withhold and/or apply Custodial Account assets to pay any fees, expenses, taxes or liabilities properly chargeable to the Custodial Account.

(c) If PENSCO is merged with another organization or if PENSCO is purchased, or substantially all of its assets are acquired by another organization, or if PENSCO assigns the Fund to a successor custodian (assuming such successor is qualified to serve as such), that organization shall then become the custodian of the Fund.

20. CONFLICTING CLAIMS

In the event that conflicting claims arise, or in the reasonable opinion of PENSCO may arise, to any assets or rights with respect to all or any portion of the Fund, PENSCO may, in its discretion, cause a court action to be filed with respect to the Fund (or any portion thereof) in accordance with applicable law and the other provisions of this Agreement. PENSCO shall in no way be liable to any person for any diminution in value of the Fund or any asset, or of any loss to any person, as a result of any such action which PENSCO in good faith causes to be filed.

21. ARBITRATION

The Employer or the Trustee hereby agrees that all claims and disputes of every type and matter between the Employer, the Trustee or the Participant and PENSCO, including but not limited to claims in contract, tort, common law claims or alleged statutory violations, shall be submitted to binding arbitration pursuant to the Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association when the total damages by all claimants in an Arbitration Demand exceed $ 75,000 the proceedings and hearings in the case shall take place only in Denver, Colorado; when the total damages by all claimants in an Arbitration Demand are $ 75,000 or less, the arbitration proceedings and hearings in the case shall take place only in the city with a United States District Court nearest to the residence of one or more of the Employer, the Trustee or the Participant. To the extent not preempted by federal law, Colorado law (including without limitation Colorado statutes governing arbitration proceedings) shall control during the arbitration. The Employer, the Trustee and the Participant expressly waive any right he/ she may have to institute or conduct litigation or arbitration in any other forum or location, or before any other body, whether individually, representatively or in another capacity. Arbitration is final and binding on the parties. An award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be confirmed in any court having jurisdiction over the parties. In arbitration the parties are entitled to a fair hearing, but arbitration proceedings are simpler and more limited than rules applicable in court. The arbitrator's award is not required to include factual findings or legal reasoning, and any party's right to appeal or to seek modification of rulings by the arbitrator is strictly limited.

The Employer, the Trustee and the Participant agree to the Arbitration Statement above and to the Indemnification of Custodian contained in the plan documents. The indemnification obligation specifically applies to claims brought by the Custodian.

22. ATTORNEY'S FEES

In the event of any dispute or controversy between PENSCO or its related entities and the Employer, Trustee, Designated Representative, Financial Representative, or the Plan Participant or with regard to the Fund or this Agreement or any provision hereof, or its interpretation, construction or implementation, or relating to the respective duties of the parties hereunder, the prevailing party in such dispute shall be entitled to recover from the non-prevailing party all reasonable fees, costs and expenses, including without limitation, attorneys' fees, costs and expenses incurred by or on behalf of the prevailing party, all of which shall be in addition to any award of damages or other relief to which such party is entitled.

23. NON-DEPOSIT INVESTMENTS NOT INSURED BY FDIC

The Employer or Trustee acknowledges that non-deposit investments, such as, but not limited to, stocks, bonds, mutual funds, notes, real property and private placements, of the Custodial Account are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and are subject to investment risks, including the loss of principal.

24. VERIFICATION OF EMPLOYER, TRUSTEE, OR PLAN PARTICIPANT IDENTIFICATION

The Employer, Trustee, or Plan Participant acknowledges that to comply with federal law, PENSCO may request as a condition for establishing the Custodial Account the name, address, date of birth and tax identification number of the Employer, Trustee, or Plan Participant and may require other information that will allow PENSCO to identify the Employer, Trustee, or Plan Participant and may require other information that will allow PENSCO to identify the Employer, Trustee, or Plan Participant and will verify the information provided by the Employer, Trustee, or Plan Participant using a third-party verification service.

PENSCO maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard the Depositor’s non-public personal information. It is the Employer’s, Trustee’s or Participant’s obligation to promptly report suspected or actual security breach activity that they become aware of to the custodian.

PENSCO and the Employer or Trustee agree that PENSCO, the Employer and the Trustee have the legal and contractual right to (a) execute and deliver this Custodial Agreement and all supplemental and replacement agreements (collectively, the “Agreements”), (b) provide and communicate directions, instructions, notices, information, records and documents (collectively, the “Documents”) to each other and other persons or entities, (c) create, generate, record, store, transmit, receive, and retain the Documents and Agreements, and (d) effect and process transactions under the Agreements for all of the foregoing or related purposes through or by the use of electronic means, processes, transmissions, communications, and records. All Agreements and Documents pertaining or relating to the legal, contractual, transactional and business relationship between PENSCO, the Employer and the Trustee, including, without limitation, all directions and instructions of the Employer and/or the Trustee to PENSCO, may be recorded, stored, retained, and evidenced by electronic records. Any written or similar Agreements or Documents in paper or hard copy form (collectively, the “Hard Copy Documents”) may also be converted to, and recorded, stored, retained, and evidenced by or in electronic records, including Hard Copy Documents that have been created or are effective prior to the date of this Owner Agreement. Electronic records shall include electronic signatures of each of PENSCO, the Employer, the Trustee and those of any third person or entity. PENSCO, the Employer and the Trustee may refuse to conduct transactions by electronic means upon notice to the other party.

Any electronic record shall accurately reflect the information set forth in any Hard Copy Record, if applicable, after it was first generated in its final form as an electronic record or alternative format. All electronic records of PENSCO, the Employer and the Trustee shall remain accessible for later reference or use by PENSCO, the Employer, the Trustee and the Account Owner or any other person or entity.

After either PENSCO, the Employer or the Trustee has recorded, stored, retained, and evidenced any such Hard Copy Documents into electronic records, then PENSCO, the Employer or the Trustee, as the case may be, shall have the right, but no obligation, to destroy any Hard Copy Documents so recorded, stored, retained, and evidenced by or into electronic records, including any Hard Copy Documents that predate, or were in effect prior to, the date of this Custodial Agreement (collectively, the “Pre-existing Hard Copy Documents”). The destruction of any Pre-existing Hard Copy Documents shall not affect any rights of either PENSCO, the Employer or the Trustee, including for legal, contractual, transactional, or business purposes or with respect to any contractual, legal or regulatory dispute or proceeding of any type or nature, including lawsuits, arbitrations, mediations, investigations, administrative proceedings, regulatory actions, or the like (collectively, “Proceedings”). Either party may introduce all applicable electronic records, including those electronic records of such Hard Copy Documents that were destroyed, into evidence, for the record or for any other legal, contractual, transactional, regulatory or related purpose at any Proceedings and may utilize all such electronic records for all of the foregoing purposes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither PENSCO, the Employer or the Trustee shall destroy any Hard Copy Documents that are required by applicable law to be retained in an original or non-electronic form.

PENSCO Trust Company ("PENSCO") shall charge a Custodial Cash fee that will be deducted from interest earned on cash balances prior to the crediting of such interest to the Account Owner's custodial account at the end of each month. The account is only eligible to earn interest if it is open as of the interest crediting date, and any interest that may accrue on the account during a month that the account is closed prior to the interest crediting date will be paid to PENSCO as an additional fee. The Custodial Cash fee is charged as a percentage, as determined in the discretion of PENSCO from time to time, but not to exceed a maximum per annum rate of 3.50% of the average daily balance of custodial account cash. See the Uninvested Cash and Terms for Uninvested Cash sections of your Account Owner Agreement for more information about the Custodial Cash fee.

PENSCO reserves the right to effect changes to this Fee Schedule, including an increase in the maximum percentage that may be charged for Custodial Cash fees, upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Account Owner, with the exception of the Custodial Cash fee percentage which will vary from time to time based on the cash balance held by the Account Owner in the custodial account and for which the percentage charged by PENSCO may be changed at any time without notice if it does not exceed the maximum percentage. A reduction in the maximum percentage for the Custodial Cash fee may also be made by PENSCO at any time without notice. See the Uninvested Cash and Terms for Uninvested Cash sections of your Account Owner Agreement for more information about the Custodial Cash fee.

Fees will continue to accrue and be payable even if the Account contains no assets from which PENSCO can collect amounts owed by the Account Owner.

The Account Owner is responsible for reporting any inaccuracy of all assessed account fees and must report any inaccuracies to PENSCO's Client Services within 45 days of the Fee Statement date.

Accounts holding $200 or less in cash, and no other assets, may be closed at PENSCO's sole discretion, and the cash balance will be paid to PENSCO as a Full Account Closure fee.

PENSCO may charge the Account Owner, and/or the custodial account, and shall be reimbursed by the Account Owner or the custodial account, for any reasonable expense incurred by PENSCO in connection with any account services or activities that PENSCO determines are necessary or advisable, or which are expressly directed by the Account Owner, and which are not included in the services provided by PENSCO for its normal fees. See the Account Owner Agreement for more details.

All outstanding account costs must be satisfied prior to the completion of an asset transfer out or an account closure.

Certain costs in this Fee Schedule may apply after notification of account closure. Examples include: research/special services costs, such as trailing dividends, check/wire costs, and requests for copies of records. Costs that remain unpaid after account closure will be subject to collections and payment according to the terms of the Account Owner Agreement.

Fees for non-recourse loans will be assessed on the asset only – the loan will not be included for the purposes of determining fees.
